

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. ALAN ERICKSON, Defendant.))))))))))	8:05CR272 ORDER
--	--	--------------------------------------

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Alan Erickson (Erickson) (Filing No. 12). Erickson seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter for at least ninety days. Counsel for the government has no objection to the motion. Erickson has submitted an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Erickson consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 13). Upon consideration, the motions will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Erickson's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 12) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for January 9, 2006, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between September 23, 2005 and January 9, 2006, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 23rd day of September, 2005.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
